Mr. Andriy Pastukhov Director SCM Consulting Limited Trident Chambers P.O. Box 146 Road Town, Tortola British Virgin Island

Re: Russian Accountability for War Damage

Dear Mr. Pastukhov:

We are very pleased to confirm that we will represent SCM Consulting Limited ("SCM") in the provision of strategic and policy advice, as well as associated lobbying services, in support of measures designed to allow Russia to be held accountable for damage inflicted in the course of its ongoing military operations on Ukrainian territory. The initial focus of these activities will be the United States, but the engagement may be extended to other jurisdictions and international fora as the parties mutually agree. We appreciate the opportunity to work with you on this matter.

We understand that SCM will be our client in this representation and not any of SCM's affiliates or related parties. If by subsequent agreement our representation is extended to other matters, the provisions of this letter will also apply to those matters unless we otherwise agree in writing.

I will be in charge of the engagement, working with Alan Larson and Stephen Rademaker. We will call upon others for assistance as appropriate.

Given the nature of the engagement, we anticipate that one or more members of the team will be required to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act ("FARA""). For its part, SCM understands and accepts that FARA registration will require public disclosure of various details of the engagement, including but not limited to moneys spent and the particulars of meetings with US government officials.

We will render our statements to you monthly. Our fees for lawyers, legal assistants and other professionals will be based on our hourly rates in effect when the services are rendered, adjusted in some cases to reflect the nature of the services provided. Currently, my hourly rate is $1115; Alan Larson's is $1500; and Stephen Rademaker's is $1225. Hourly rates for other lawyers range from $640 for junior associates to $2,500 for senior partners; and for legal assistants from $305 to $595. We normally review and adjust our rates once a year as of January 1, although there are circumstances in which we may adjust rates at other times.

Our fees in this matter will be discounted in accordance with the tiered volume discount arrangement we have in place for certain existing matters on behalf of DTEK and SCM group companies. Under this arrangement, when the cumulative total of fees billed on all of these matters in the year beginning 1 October amounts to less than U.S. $500,000 a 10 percent discount on our standard hourly rates will apply; when the cumulative total amounts to between U.S. $500,000 and U.S. $1,000,000, a 15 percent discount will apply to fees in excess of $500,000; and when the cumulative total exceeds U.S. $1,000,000, a 20 percent discount will apply to fees in excess of that amount. The cumulative total for purposes of this arrangement resets to zero each 1 October.

Our statements will include charges for support services incurred on your behalf, such as printing, mail, deliveries and the like, as well as out-of-pocket costs, such as travel. If substantial third-party payments (such as co-counsel fees, expert fees, special studies, transcripts, or any single charge of more than $1,000) are required, we reserve the right to forward the charge to you for you to pay directly, or to ask you to advance to us funds sufficient to allow us to pay the charge on your behalf.

Payment of our statements in full is due within 30 days of receipt. We reserve the right to charge interest on any portion of a statement that is not paid on time. If any statement remains unpaid for more than 60 days, you agree that we will have the right to cease performing services until satisfactory arrangements have been made for payment of outstanding statements and payment of future statements.

Our records reveal no representation of another client adverse to you in any existing matter presently being handled by this firm or in this matter. However, as you recognize, we are a large law firm with multiple practices in multiple offices throughout the world, and we represent many different clients in many different industries, including clients who are competitors of each other and sometimes adversaries in legal matters. In taking on this representation, we commit that we will not represent any other client in any matter adverse to you that is substantially related to this matter. In this context, "substantially related" is a term that has come to have a settled meaning in the case law and in Bar ethics opinions. What this commitment means is that we will not take on any matter adverse to you on behalf of another client in circumstances in which any of your confidential data or information, as normally would have been obtained by us in our representation of you, would be material to any new matter adverse to you that we might accept from another client.

In return for our agreement to represent you in this matter, you consent and agree that we may be adverse to you on behalf of other clients in matters that are not substantially related to the matter we are now undertaking on your behalf or to any additional matter we may undertake on your behalf in the future. This means that we might be adverse to you in litigation, intellectual property matters (including patent litigation), transactional matters, counseling, matters involving administrative agencies, lobbying and other legislative matters, or any other type of matter so long as the matter is not substantially related to work we have performed for you.

In addition, if there are parties adverse to you in the matter we are undertaking on your behalf, it is possible that those adverse parties will have need for counsel in matters which do not have a substantial relationship to the matter in which we represent you. Even though we would, as a result, be receiving some fee income from your adversary, you consent to our representing such parties in matters that are not substantially related to any of our work for you. We, for our part, commit to continued zealous representation of your interests in the matters in which we do represent you notwithstanding any fee income we may receive from your adversary.
